Tragedy fell on the Coker family September 24, 1857 when Loucious Monroe Coker six year son of Mr. James Harrison and Mrs. Sarah Jane Coker, died from a rattlesnake bite. Little Loucious's Grand father Mr. Joseph Coker offered to put the grave on his property. A High knoll near the Salado Creek was selected to mark little Loucious's grave. Mr. Amos D. Jones was asked to chisel a large limestone headstone. The limestone headstone is still standing and the largest monument in the Cemetery.
